COUNCILLORS BACK EDDC HQ OFFICE MOVE

DISTRICT councillors across Pulman's Country have given their backing to possible plans to relocate East Devon District Council (EDDC) headquarters from its current base in Sidmouth to a new purpose-built office block on the Heathpark Industrial Estate in Honiton.

In a press statement sent to this newspaper a spokesman for the local authority said the council was "giving serious consideration to moving its staff to a new purpose-built office block on council-owned land in Honiton".

The spokesman added: "The aim is to provide a better service for residents in a more central location, whilst delivering many services more locally than at present.

"The proposed move to Honiton should reduce overheads and create a smaller carbon footprint, and also provide a building suitable for modern working practices."

Local district councillors believe the proposed move to Honiton would make EDDC more accessible and would save costs.

Roger Giles, district councillor for the Ottery St Mary town ward, said: "The economics have got to be looked into carefully but all things being equal, there are better places for the EDDC offices than Sidmouth.

"If the offices were to go to Honiton it would be much more central and there would be easier access as well."

Mike Allen, who represents Honiton St Michael's ward, said: "Fundamentally it is a good idea to move. There could be a number of new jobs created and it would be a great advantage for Honiton. I think it is an extremely good idea."

Mayor of Seaton and Seaton district councillor, Peter Burrows, added: "I think overall this is probably a good idea. The property at Sidmouth is not conducive to council offices. I am, however, surprised that the district council has said that it won't save money by selling the site in Sidmouth."

Graham Godbeer, district councillor for Coly Valley, said: "Nothing has been decided yet. I have been on the panel looking into this and it is something we are seriously considering. We are not fixed on Honiton at all but we do have the land at Honiton so we could build council offices at a low cost. However, if Honiton is found to be not suitable we could look elsewhere.

"I think we need a council building and we need somewhere for councillors to meet but we are open to suggestions and discussions. The building at Sidmouth is very inefficient."

Axminster district councillor Douglas Hull said: "It would be so much more economical to have an office in Honiton. The Knowle is not fit for purpose and it doesn't lend itself to a good administration.

"It will take time and it won't happen overnight but I believe a move is the right thing to do."

The spokesman for the local authority added that the move could take place within the next three years but the final decision would depend on the right price being offered for the Sidmouth site.

Thieves get a fish netful

THIEVES have netted three koi and several goldfish from a property in Farway, near Colyton.

According to police the theft took place sometime between 7am on Thursday, July 21st, and 7am on Friday, July 22nd.

A police spokesman said: "There have been several incidents in this area and we would advise residents to report any suspicious activity or vehicles to the police."

Anyone with information about the theft is asked to call police on 08452 777444 quoting crime number KN/11/288.

Kitchen fire

FIRE crews from Seaton, Colyton and Sidmouth were called to reports of a kitchen fire in Branscombe on Monday, July 25th.

The incident took place at Vicarage Hill at approximately 11pm.

The fire involved a dishwasher and fire crews used four breathing apparatus, one hose reel and a positive pressure ventilation fan.

Tackling the falls in abseil for legion

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@lindlenews.co.uk

A SEATON publican is set to take part in a sponsored abseil at Canonteign Falls, Christow.

Darren Twamley, of the Hook and Parrot, will be raising funds for the Royal British Legion and he is hoping to raise as much money as possible for the legion which celebrates its 90th anniversary this year.

Speaking to Pulman's View, Darren said: "The Hook and Parrot is the meeting place for the Seaton branch of the legion and a couple of months ago I was presenting a cheque to the members and that is when they asked me if I wanted to take part in the sponsored abseil."

"My dad has also been a member of the legion so for me it is a real family charity."

The event will take place on Saturday, September 3rd, and has been organised with the help of Royal Marine Commandos based at Lympstone.

Before he descends from the top of the falls Darren will be given full instructions and a safety briefing.

He said: "I have done rock climbing before but an abseil is something new for me. I am really looking forward to it and can't wait."

"I have to raise a minimum of £50 to take part and so far I have raised £175. But I want to raise as much money as possible."

Funds have been donated by Seaton Royal British Legion members and the mayor of the town, Peter Burrows, has also been digging deep and has backed the

Visitors' tram and donkey discounts

AN international animal charity has teamed up with an east Devon tourist attraction.

The Donkey Sanctuary and Seaton Tramway are joining forces to offer discounts at both venues.

As part of the deal, one customer from every group of passengers travelling on the tram can claim a free hot drink and cookie from the Donkey Sanctuary's Hayloft restaurant. Visitors who make a purchase in the Donkey Sanctuary's visitor centre will be given a voucher entitling one child per group free travel on the tram.

Both offers apply to one person per group and are valid seven days a week excluding Bank Holidays and special events.

Jenny Nunn, managing director of Seaton Tramway, said: "I am delighted that we are teaming up with such a well respected institution as the Donkey Sanctuary and to be able to offer this great deal to visitors to both attractions. It is important not just for us but for the local community as a whole that visitors to the area see the best of what east Devon has to offer."

Gorse alight

DOZENS of firefighters were called to deal with a gorse fire at Lime Kiln Lane, Uplyme, on Thursday, July 28th.

The incident took place just before 6pm and crews from Lyme Regis, Axminster, Colyton, Exmouth and Honiton were mobilised to the scene.

A spokesman for the fire service said: "On attendance an area of scrub land was well alight.

"The crews worked to extinguish the fire using hose reels, beaters and a suppression pump."

Family at end of tether with store's night noise

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

A HONITON family claims late night noise from Tesco deliveries is causing them to suffer sleep deprivation.

Claire and Nicholas Curram, of Ware Court, say they have contacted the store and the Tesco head office about the problem but no solution has been found.

Mr Curram said: "As a family with four young children we are at the end of our tether with the total lack of consideration exhibited by Tesco with regard to the ongoing problem of noise during the night from their deliveries.

"Radios are left on in delivery vehicles and engines are left running unnecessarily. On top of that, after off-loading the stock, empty pallets are slammed down making a considerable noise."

The couple say they have had to move bedrooms to try and get a good night's sleep and added that their children's sleep is also disturbed by the noise.

"Normally noise should be kept to a minimum between the hours of 11pm and 7am," said Mr Curram.

"That rule applies to us so why is Tesco allowed to flout this?"

"Tesco customer service staff have said they have asked the drivers and staff to be quieter at night, clearly none is taking any notice."

"It [the noise] is affecting our quality of life."

"We don't expect absolute silence, but this level and type of noise is unacceptable."

"We are disturbed at 10pm, 12midnight, 2am, 4am and roughly 6am and each delivery takes about an hour to off-load."

A spokesman for Tesco said in a statement to this newspaper: "We are very sorry to hear that Mr and Mrs Curram have been having problems. We are happy to discuss these problems with them further and have reiterated to all delivery staff that noise is to be kept to a minimum."

Trio rescued

AN angling vessel rescued three men from waters just east of the entrance to the River Axe during the morning of Saturday, July 30th.

The trio had been onboard the 16ft fishing vessel, Sky, which suddenly capsized and sank.

Crew on an angling vessel named Sam came to their rescue, though.

A spokesperson for The Coastguard said the three men did not wear lifejackets, and added: "The Sam put the men ashore and, despite leaving the scene, were eventually contacted by Beer Coastguard rescue officers who confirmed that they [the three men] were safe and well and did not require medical attention."

Washing fire

A FIRE crew from Ottery St Mary was called to reports of a property fire at Quarter Mile Lane, Aylesbeare.

The incident took place at approximately 5.39pm on Thursday, July 28th. Firefighters from Dances Castle, Exeter, also attended.

The fire was contained within a washing machine and crews extinguished the flames using one hose reel and a covering jet.

Barn ablaze

FIRE crews from Seaton and Sidmouth were called to reports of a fire at The Great Barn, Branscombe on Saturday, July 30th.

The incident took place just before 6am and the fire was contained to the outside balcony at the property.

Crews in attendance used breathing apparatus, two hose reel jets, two thermal imaging cameras and small tools to extinguish the flames.

DAAT charity of agricultural show

THE annual Honiton Agricultural Show takes place on Thursday, August 4th, and Devon Air Ambulance Trust has been nominated as the show president's chosen charity.

This year marks the 121st Honiton Show and entertainment will be on offer in abundance.

Activities at the show will include alpaca, cattle and sheep judging, a dog show, food and trade stands, vintage tractors, a tug of war and the Bolddog Freestyle Team will be performing in the main ring. There will also be a number of equestrian showing classes and plenty of trade stands.

Caroline Creer, fundraising director for Devon Air Ambulance Trust, said: "We were delighted to learn that we had been nominated as the president's chosen charity this year."

"This agricultural show is always such a great day and with the amount and choice of things they have planned we are sure that everyone who attends will have a brilliant time."

Entry to the show costs £14 per adult and under 16s are admitted free if accompanied by a paying adult.

Trip service seeks drivers

A HONITON-based voluntary car service is on the lookout for more drivers to cover the Lyme Regis patch.

Trip community transport has been based in Honiton since 1997. It offers community transport services throughout east Devon, Lyme Regis and Exeter.

Neil Hurlcock, of Trip, said: "We are currently struggling for voluntary drivers in Lyme Regis and have had to let a few people down recently as we had no drivers available for some journeys to medical appointments, both locally as well as Dorchester and Exeter."

"We desperately need a couple of extra drivers to help out on an occasional basis — there is no commitment to regular days or minimum numbers of hours per week. Mileage expenses are reimbursed at 45 pence per mile."

TWO local MPs and a district councillor have headed up a delegation to the House of Commons for talks with Edward Davey MP, the minister for postal affairs.

The meeting was arranged to discuss East Devon District Council's (EDDC) concerns about the future of the Post Office network in east Devon.

Representing EDDC was Ken Potter, champion for rural communities, including Post Offices. East Devon MP Hugo Swire and Tiverton and Honiton MP Neil Parish also attended.

Following the meeting, councillor Potter said: "The government is committed to offering postal services to at least the 11,500 communities currently served nationally and is keen to improve on that number. In order to save costs, at least 2,000 traditional Post Offices will be converted to Post Office Locals.

MPs' bid for local postal affairs talks

"A Post Office Local will not be a traditional Post Office, as the service offered will be provided from a Post Office till, adjacent to the trading till in a village store or other outlet if considered suitable. This format is currently being trialled around the country.

"Everyone agreed that the Post Office needs new profitable business to make it sustainable. Finance is in place to keep the Post Office Network in business at least until 2015. A great deal more must be achieved to ensure a successful future after that date."

Mr Swire said: "At last we have a government that is prepared to tackle the Post Office structure, which has witnessed a steady decline over the past decade. The minister was clear that there would be some profound changes, but that the Post Office needed to adapt to the times.

"I think there are some exciting developments, which should underpin a service that we all want to see prosper."

Mr Parish added: "The Post Office is one of our country's finest assets and provides vital services for millions of its customers. The reforms this government is introducing will make the Post Office fit for the 21st Century whilst maintaining the current network."

"I was pleased that the minister was able to make clear that these changes would put the Post Office on a sustainable footing and reverse a decade of decline."

Baths stolen

THREE cast iron bath tubs have been stolen from a property in Stepps Lane, Axmouth.

Seaton police say the theft took place on Wednesday, July 20th, just before 12noon.

A spokesman for Seaton police said: "The offenders gained access to the property by lifting off a five bar metal gate then removed the three baths. The baths were then loaded onto a red truck."

"There have been several incidents in this area and we would advise residents to report any suspicious activity or vehicles to the police."

Anyone with information about the incident is asked to call Seaton police on 08452 777444 quoting crime number KN/11/283.

MORE than £1,500 was raised during the recent Colyton Church Fete.

The event took place on Saturday, July 9th, at St Andrew's Church.

Dozens of people attended and stalls included cakes, bric-a-brac and books. Games on offer included tombolas run by Colyton Mothers' Union and St Andrew's Choir, an Egg Roulette hosted by Colyton Brownies and a Water or Wine competition was held by Colyton Guides.

Afternoon teas and ice creams refreshed visitors and music was provided by Honiton-based Amicrofters.

The funds raised will be split between the church's emergency fund and general church funds.

£452 raised by toddlers

CHILDREN from the Folly Nursery in Honiton have raised £452 by taking part in the Big Toddler 2011 event.

The funds raised will go towards Barnardo's work with disadvantaged youngsters from across the area.

Barnardo's projects include play schemes for children with disabilities, family activity events and parenting classes.

Nursery manager Helen Freeman said: "It was a fantastic event and even the sun came out to support us during the course of the toddler. All the children did at least the half mile, with some children toddling nearly two miles.

"It was a fantastic day and we are very proud to have learned about and to have raised so much money for such a worthy cause."

Council and police meet

SEATON Town Council and the Seaton Neighbourhood Beat Team will be holding a joint-surgery on Tuesday, August 9th, in The Square, Seaton.

The event will be moved to the Community Resource Centre on Fore Street if there is bad weather.

A member of Seaton police and the town council will be available between 9.30am and 11am.

NEW PARTNERS APPOINTED

Mark Carlisle, a partner in the Axminster office says "There are a lot of challenges ahead for market town practices such as ours and those firms which don't adapt to meet those challenges are going to lose out, or indeed cease operating. Those in the know predict the demise of many market town practices. The introduction of new partners, and therefore fresh ideas, is part of our ongoing planning process and we are fortunate to have two such excellent lawyers within the firm who both embrace the firm's ethos of putting clients first and striving for excellence in service levels. I'm very much looking forward to their involvement in the future management and development of the firm."

Victoria Boyer, a private client solicitor in Axminster, says "As soon as I joined Beviss & Beckingsale about three years ago I knew immediately I'd made the right decision. I shared the partners' view of what a solicitors' practice should be - accessible and friendly yet simultaneously providing a professional service backed up with the latest IT infrastructure. I'm very excited to be having my say in the future development of the firm and in particular the continued improvement in private client services (wills, powers of attorney, tax advice, estate administration, etc.) provided by the firm."

Frances Griffiths, who deals with property and business matters in the firm's Chard office, says:-

"I joined Beviss & Beckingsale from a background of working in one of the larger regional practices. What struck me is that Beviss & Beckingsale are very well equipped in their technical knowledge, information resources and information technology all of which will be crucial if market town firms are to survive. However, the firm appreciates that its most important asset is its staff all of whom are dedicated to, and take a keen interest in, the firm's development. I consider my role as a partner to be providing fresh input to the management decisions of the firm and in particular developing the commercial work in Chard, which is my particular speciality."

Couple's anger over fuel station contamination

CAR WILL COST PAIR HUNDREDS TO FIX AFTER GARAGE 'MIX-UP'

A COUPLE from Dorchester say they will have to pay out hundreds of pounds to fix their car after an apparent mix-up at a petrol station on the outskirts of Axminster.

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@indienews.co.uk

wife was stuck. She was calling me and traffic was building up behind her and it was quite distressing for her.

"So I called the AA and they came and picked the car up and took it to our usual garage."

Mr Bell says he had only recently taken the car for a service so he thought that there could be a problem that hadn't been spotted. However, the garage confirmed that the engine had been contaminated.

He is now hoping other drivers would be aware of the incident and is urging anyone who has suffered a similar fate to come forward.

Mr Bell added: "It looks like when my wife filled up the car it flushed the petrol tank with a water like substance. Apparently petrol stations use water to clean the pumps and it looks like this is the problem."

"I have contacted the police and they have advised me to contact Trading Standards. I haven't contacted my insurance company yet because I don't want to lose my no claims bonus. It is likely that the engine is going to need to be rebuilt."

A spokesman for Chevron UK, the Texaco parent company, was unavailable for comment as this newspaper went to press.

Business club launches biggest coffee morning

MEMBERS of the Exeter and East Devon Business Club have launched the east Devon World's Biggest Coffee Morning.

The club gathered outside its regular meeting point, the Deer Park Hotel, near Honiton, recently to launch the fundraiser which raises money for Macmillan Cancer Research.

Calvin Lovelock, Macmillan's east Devon fundraising manager, said: "The World's Biggest Coffee Morning is always really popular, probably because it is such an easy event to take part in."

"Some people hold just a small event with friends and neighbours, others organise work-based coffee breaks, while others go all out and organise a big community party. Every pound raised matters so we really hope even more people will sign up to hold a coffee morning this year."

Dog control order could be scrapped

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@findlenews.co.uk

PLANS for a dog control order at Winter's Lane Playing Field in Ottery St Mary could now be scrapped.

Ottery St Mary Town Council has asked East Devon District Council (EDDC) to reconsider the issue at its cabinet meeting tomorrow (Wednesday), and district councillors look set to approve the move.

In a report produced by EDDC it said: "A request from Ottery St Mary Town Council for EDDC to introduce a control order excluding dogs from Winter's Lane Playing Field has been considered by the executive board and the full council on a number of occasions.

"A consultation on the original proposal for a complete ban on dogs provoked substantial opposition and the officer recommendation at the time was that the order should not be made.

"A compromise solution was put forward and subsequently agreed by the council in February 2010 to make a Dog Control Order with the exception of a 20 metre wide dog exercise area at the south western end (of the playing field)."

At a meeting of Ottery St Mary Town Council on Monday, July 4th, councillors voted in favour of leaving the playing field as it is, adding that the location of the planned exercise area was not right for residents and dog walkers.

The EDDC report added: "If members decide not to make the Dog Control Order the legal requirement for dog owners to clear up after their dogs would, of course, remain.

"It is likely that the demand for enforcing this order will increase, and members may wish to consider asking the town council to either contribute towards the cost of this enforcement or have the ownership of the field transferred to them."

TWO Uplyme businesses have taken top awards at the recent Lyme Regis Bloom Contest.

Hedgehog Corner Bed and Breakfast picked up the prize for Best Business Garden and the Talbot Arms won Best Pub Display.

Joy Raymond, of Hedgehog Corner, said: "My guests visit both the Talbot Arms and Lyme Regis so we are very pleased to be allowed to enter the competition and delighted to win our categories."

"It is part of my guests stay to be able to look out on the pretty gardens. The annual competition is great fun and the judges have some very useful tips to pass on as well."

Steve Gardner, of the Talbot Arms, added: "This is brilliant news and we are very pleased with the display this year. All of our efforts have paid off."

The winners of all the categories will collect their prizes at an awards evening at the Guildhall in Lyme Regis in September.

Mr Martin said: "Relationship breakdown is very stressful. We try to help people going through that experience to explore the options open to them and help them move forward in a positive way."

50th anniversary for caravan park

A HOLIDAY park on the outskirts of Axminster is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year.

Andrewshayes Caravan Park, just off the A35, was originally a farm and was used as a stopping place for holidaymakers travelling on the A35.

This summer marks the 50th year of the park and owners Harry and Stephanie Lawrence say they have lots of things planned to mark the occasion.

A spokesman for the caravan park said: "From the beginning many trees were planted and now these mature trees provide shade and character around the caravans."

"Recently the park entered the David Bellamy Conservation Scheme and was delighted to receive a Gold Award. The scheme encompasses all elements of the environment, from recycling, selling local produce in the shop and encouraging wildlife. Another element is involving the community and Andrewshayes always employs local staff."

Turbine time

A HONITON estate agent is urging landowners to act fast if they want a wind turbine.

Caroline Snell, of Stags, says changes are about to be made to Feed in Tariffs (FiTs) and these changes could be in place by April 2012.

Miss Snell said: "Those considering erecting a wind turbine on their property need to act fast, as the recent government review of the FiTs scheme announced that the current FiTs will only remain at their current level for installations completed by April 2012."

"Tariff levels could even be reduced sooner if the ongoing review reveals a need for greater urgency. Landowners should not underestimate the length of the planning process and note that the FiTs can only be claimed once the wind turbine is up and running and generating electricity."

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

RAY Hunter from Axminster said: "I recently looked at an advertisement for new books and came across these two titles, God's Dangerous Book and When God Spoke English."

"Two catchy titles attract, the first tells how the Bible was created, and how it became a best-selling book and the effects it had on those who encountered it."

"The second with the subtitle, The making of the King James Bible, offers a fascinating account of the early years of the first Stewart scholars who laboured to create the world's greatest book – the King James Bible. Recently Christians Together in Seaton took part in a public reading of the Bible outside the URC Church building to commemorate the 400th anniversary of the first publication of the King James Bible."

"Axminster Churches Together will be doing the same over the next few weeks. God's Dangerous Book the Bible is still the same, exciting and inspirational, speaking to the hearts of those who are open and willing to receive the truth, and God still speaks to us today in the language of our understanding."

Churchwardens are in the news this week — or at least in the Oxford Diocese are. One of their tasks is to safeguard church property. In this case they were oak and elm chests for which there was no current church use. The church council unanimously agreed to the sale and together they fetched over £16,000 and are now believed to have left the country. Unfortunately, such action without reference to higher church authorities is not permitted. The churchwardens have been before a Consistory Court which directed the parish to try to trace the chests and the churchwardens have to pay court costs.

The Church of England General Synod completed its summer meeting with matters of general interest. First, synod has agreed to support a recommendation that the Church of England and the United Reformed Church (URC) should heal their existing division. It is proposed to hold a joint act of worship in Westminster Abbey next year, 350 years after the great rejection of the 1662 Prayer Book, which the rift now ends.

A proposal recently mentioned in this column, to raise parochial fees by including former items which are now charged as extras, was rejected by the synod.

This would have raised the level of fees but prevented extras charged currently by some parishes.

The synod also agreed to look at the electorate for lay members of general and diocesan synods to see if it should be somebody other than deanery synods.

The general synod approved texts for the new Eucharistic Prayers suitable for services where significant numbers of children are present. For further details visit the Praxis website at www.praxisworship.org.uk.

LYME Regis Coastguard Rescue Team was in the right place at the right time on Monday, July 18th.

The team was on exercise in Charmouth when a member of the public approached them to report that some people were cut off by the tide to the east of Charmouth.

The incident took place at approximately 7.40pm.

Lyme coastguards contacted Portland who called in the rescue helicopter.

One man and three children were located by the Lyme team and the helicopter was on standby in case an evacuation was needed.

A project for town's railings

COLYTON Parish Council is on the lookout for people to adopt a railing.

More than 500 railings surround the Church of St Andrew's and they are in need of repainting.

A spokesman for the parish council said: "We are looking for people who would adopt ten railings and turn out on an afternoon or a Saturday morning to rub down those railings and repaint them. All equipment will be supplied."

Drive to seek snow wardens before winter

A RECRUITMENT drive is underway to increase the number of snow wardens across Devon.

Around 30 parishes signed up for the voluntary scheme when it was launched last winter, and Devon County Council is hoping to swell the ranks before next winter arrives.

Devon County Council is pledging to provide up to five tonnes of salt free of charge to parishes that sign up to the scheme. Those who register are asked to identify an individual to act as a point of contact during winter and demonstrate that they have arrangements in place to store and manage salt.

Parishes will then be free to decide, in the best interests of their community, how they use it on public roads and footpaths in their area. Parishes that join the scheme will take responsibility for the grit bins and salt bags within their community, encouraging responsible use of grit and helping to minimise abuse of grit. Devon County Council is currently replenishing the county's 3,000 grit bins ahead of next winter.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council cabinet member for Highways and Transportation, said:

"The snow warden scheme is an additional resource on top of the winter service the county council already provides. It's about giving parish councils local ownership, and supporting them in providing self-help in their local community during the winter. Parish councils know what their priorities are in terms of maintaining access to their community buildings and primary schools, and they would be able to determine their local need."

"It's impossible for Devon County Council to treat our entire network of roads and footpaths, but while we can keep the main routes as clear as possible there's a limit to what we can achieve at a very local level. The snow wardens can provide local communities with that additional level of service."

Snow wardens are given safety training by Devon County Council, and while they carry out the snow clearance at their own risk, as long as the snow clearance is carried out responsibly and within the guidelines of the scheme, a third party claim would be covered by the county council's public liability insurance.

Dunkeswell Parish Council has already signed up to the scheme.

Councillor John Barrow, chairman of Dunkeswell Parish Council, said: "The county council gritter goes through the main road, but it's impossible to go to every road in the village which is where self-help for villages and small communities makes sense."

"We had started to do something ourselves in the parish with salt spreaders, and when the snow warden scheme came along we thought it was a good idea. I think people are realising that we can't sit back and that we have to do some things ourselves. A lot of rural communities have always been like that and people were pleased last year that we made it possible for them to get another. We'll have to see if we get another winter like it, but we'll be prepared if we do."

Parish and town councils that are able to register their interest with Devon County Council's local highway neighbourhood teams by the end of August can expect to receive a salt delivery in September or October. For parishes that may apply later, the county council will endeavour to provide salt before the winter.

◆ AXMINSTER YFC members present a cheque for £3,082.58 to Devon Air Ambulance Trust

Members present over £3k to DAAT

ON Monday, July 18th Axminster Young Farmers' Club (YFC) members donated £3,082.58 to the Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

The members heard all about the running costs for Devon Air Ambulance and what the trust aims to do with donations from Tim Hoad, who came to collect the cheque on behalf of the air ambulance trust.

The money has been raised since Christmas by doing the annual Boxing Day dip at Seaton and also with a 24-hour ploughathon at Burridge Farm, Chard.

Vintage Tractor Enthusiasts raised £200 of the money, organised by Kevin Salter.

Club chairman Phil Bird said: "It was a fantastic amount of money to be able donate to such a worthy charity. Club members always enjoy raising money for the Devon Air Ambulance as many of us work and live in rural areas, often difficult to reach by land ambulance, so we never know when it could be ourselves needing it."

The young farmers have continued with their fundraising with six members just completing a 100-mile bike ride in aid of Force Cancer Charity and £148 being donated to Comic Relief.

The club is also holding a fun ride open to the public on Sunday, August 7th starting at Brays Farm, Dalwood.

For more information or to find out how to join Axminster YFC, call Phil Bird on 07774001829.

WI team does its ladies proud with third win at show

THE July meeting of Musbury and Whitford Women's Institute was held at Whitford Village Hall on Tuesday, July 12th.

Apologies were taken and birthday posies given out for both July and August.

Congratulations to the Axe Vale show team, who once again did the group proud by winning again, three years in a row.

The team consists of Maddy, Joan, Aideen, Veronica and Marnie.

Marnie also raised £85 for the charity ARC at the show.

Members then welcomed the speaker, Lucy Channon, on Heirlooms of the Future.

The vote of thanks was given by Joan and the group then had a refreshment break and got on with the business, of which there was quite a lot.

Joy gave a very interesting account of her visit to Liverpool, as delegate to the annual meeting.

Hopefully there will be a fish and chip supper with skittles, to raise money for ARC.

The outing to Mapperton House was a great success, thanks to Eve and Jan.

There will be a planning meeting at Musbury Village Hall with a soup and fruit lunch.

This is on August 16th at 10.30am onwards, bring and buy, books, CDs, DVDs and more.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, September 13th at 7.30pm in Whitford Village Hall.

The subject is Our Farm at Yellingham.

As usual, all are most welcome.

Dog for the disabled demonstrates its skills

CHRISTINE Morrison was the speaker for the July meeting of the Honiton Afternoon Women's Institute (WI).

She gave a most interesting talk on Dogs for the Disabled and was ably assisted by her very entertaining dog, Perry, who is a nine-year-old cross labrador-retriever.

At Mrs Morrison's request he demonstrated how he could remove her cardigan and gloves and even pick up a coin in his mouth from the floor.

The meeting was also told that some dogs are trained to work with autistic children which seems to have a very beneficial effect on them.

These dogs are very intelligent and help disabled people in so many ways.

Perry is Mrs Morrison's second dog.

Her first dog reached retirement age but is still able to live with her and her husband as a family pet.

Both dogs get on very well together. Also this month members are meeting for the annual cream tea event at a member's home and garden where, weather permitting, they will be able to enjoy a game of croquet.

There is no meeting in August so the next meeting will be on September 12th, at 2pm, when one of the WI members will speak on her visit to Chile with Green Tours.

Third time lucky for group

IT was third time lucky for Colyton Women's Institute's July garden meeting, held in Sue Kightly's garden with a tea provided by the committee.

The sun shone and members entertained visitors from Colyton, Beer and Musbury and Whitford WIs — as well as other friends.

The president, Brenda Clark, gave out information concerning a coach trip to Salisbury on October 20th and the WI Fashion Show on Wednesday, September 7th.

Jacky Roberts Wake would like to hear from any members willing to join in the walking entry for the carnival.

Members were then pleased to welcome Colin Pady and his two Alpacas — Archie and Alice.

Alpacas, related to camels and llamas, come from the high Andes in Chile, Peru and Bolivia and came quite recently to this country; in the 1980s. They are a very ancient breed and breed in 22 different shades, from white to black.

The wool, after spinning, can be used to make warm, light, knitted garments as well as rugs.

They are very alert animals and some farmers use them within their flocks of sheep to prevent threats from foxes in lambing time.

Alice and Archie looked very regal, regarding the members from beneath their fringes and 'humming' to each other.

The vote of thanks was given by Joy Burley to Sue Kightly for her hospitality.

Supper and card game evening

SMEATHARPE Women's Institute (WI) met to share supper and card games at last month's meeting.

The normal business part was kept to a minimum as a team of ladies prepared supper for all those present.

Jenny and Pam set the mood with a glass of buck's fizz for everyone as a thank you for all the help given at the various catering events during the year.

A delicious supper of sausages and mash was enjoyed by all, with plenty for seconds.

Janice, who celebrated her wedding anniversary and birthday in the coming week, treated members to cake with the tea or coffee.

Afterwards, the rest of the evening was spent playing card games. Sally, a self-confessed competitive card player, was the overall winner, gaining the most points and Viv won the booby prize of a bar of chocolate.

The flower of the month was won by Geraldine Field.

Thanks were expressed to all the cooks who served supper and the ladies who were on washing-up duty.

The next meeting of Smeatharpe WI will be held on Thursday, August 11th and will be an evening of Thai Chi.

Nearly 50 attend July gathering

THE July meeting of Awliscombe Women's Institute (WI) was well attended with nearly 50 members and three visitors.

Olive introduced Angela Phillips and Eileen Rooke from Hospiscare. Angela is the leader of the east Devon cluster team and she educates students at the Peninsula School in Exeter. Eileen is the head of the fundraising team where suggestions and volunteers are always needed.

Dorothy Nicholls thanked them for giving their informative talk.

Rosemary read the report from Marguerite Coker who had attended the annual meeting in Liverpool.

Thanks went to Rosemary for organising two coaches for the group outing to Bournemouth and Swanage.

Meg was kept busy taking names for the many trips in the months ahead.

The flower of the month competition was won by Joyce Edwards, and the competition for a single rose was won by Mary Martin with Marilyn Wright second and Margaret Dymond third.

Dorothy won the raffle. Tea hostesses were Daphne Carpenter, Vi Dawson, Jill Goodes and Chrissie Jackson.

New paint formula is demonstrated at meet

THE chairman and members of the Seaton and District Art Society welcomed the return of Christine Russell whose talk and demonstration on how to use Interactive Acrylics at the society's monthly meeting was greeted with enthusiasm and contemplation.

Christine explained the advantages of using "interactive" for unlike traditional acrylics the colours do not suddenly form a skin. They change the painting process, giving you plenty of time to blend and rework; thus giving you more creative freedom.

The patent-pending formulation allows even touch-dry paint to be reworked or ragged-off to blend or reveal layers.

Atelier Interactive acrylics are lightfast and the intense colours dry to a satin-like finish without a plastic look or feel and minimal colour shift.

If painting out in the open on a hot day Christine said you will need to replace the water being lost through evaporation by spraying with water from time to time.

Alternatively if it is humid the interactive will dry slowly so one can then use a hair dryer to speed up the drying process.

Use an acrylic palette on which to mix the paints and always mix a small range of colour at any given time. Christine went on to say that by twisting the angle of the brush you can either blend the colour onto the canvas with another colour or just use the colour which is on the brush.

It is fun and very versatile, and puts the artist in control of the painting process.

◆ CHRISTINE Russell demonstrates Interactive acrylics

The members were delighted with Christine's demonstration landscape and her response to all the questions asked on the wide range of techniques using interactive acrylics.

Anyone interested in coming along to the meeting on September 5th, when Mousa Al Kordi will be giving a talk and demonstration on the Islamic Influence on Western Art, will be made most welcome.

The venue, as always, is The Methodist Church Hall, Valley View, Seaton, and the programme starts at 2pm and costs £3 to non-members.

There is no meeting in August as it is the 39th Annual Art Exhibition at Seaton Town Hall from August 6th to 11th. The entrance fee is 50p to include a catalogue.

Badger culls: waste of time and resources

SEVERAL readers have recently asked me for my views on the proposed badger cull in the Westcountry. Whilst I have a great deal of sympathy with the farming community who are losing stock on an unacceptable scale as a result of bovine TB, killing badgers by shooting at night will prove to be a complete waste of time and resources.

The Government's own best estimates show that a cull, even if successful, would reduce TB by a mere 16 per cent, whilst at the same time it is a racing certainty that the disease will be spread onto farms as yet unaffected as badger communities, disturbed by shooting, move out of their present setts. In addition, the likelihood of so-called "expert marksmen" cleanly killing badgers lamped at night is remote. Inevitably, animals will be wounded and escape underground.

As one who has used a rifle for sporting purposes for decades I know exactly what is involved and I am all too well aware that culling, or killing to use the real term, badgers will prove a shambolic disaster which will also invite retaliation from the more lunatic fringe of the animal rights movement. Already there has been talk of a police presence required to ensure the safety of anyone attempting to carry out a cull.

It is, of course, a typical Government knee-jerk reaction in the hope that it will pacify the farming community. However, I suspect that even some farmers are aware that this crude reaction to the problem is not the answer. Currently a vaccine which can be injected into trapped badgers is under trial in Gloucestershire, but this can only be a short-term measure until an oral vaccine, the way forward, is developed.

I am not, I might add, one of those who view the badger as a kind, cuddly old Mr Brock from the Wild Wood, which lives a blameless life. Badgers belong to the weasel family and are omnivorous. They will break into chicken runs as I know to my cost and lost poultry, and kill hedgehogs and any other vulnerable creatures they come across. Yes, they may look very charming, meandering round a sett eating bait set out by a cameraman, but they are still omnivorous, taking young rabbits, snakes, lizards, voles, wasp and bumble-bee grubs, pheasant and partridge eggs as well as roots, acorns and bluebell bulbs.

Apparently, the critically endangered bluefin tuna is now appearing in waters off the Dorset coast, one having been landed by an angler in the Portland Harbour area. However, Dorset Wildlife Trust has issued an urgent request to all sea anglers to return to the sea any tuna they might catch as the bluefin tuna has suffered a massive decline over the past 40 years due to over-fishing.

In the 1930s sport fishing in the North Sea was producing massive fish, some weighing over 600lbs, but these are now a thing of the past and the bluefin tuna is facing extinction so any angler who catches one is asked to return it alive and also inform The Southern Inshore Fisheries and Conservation Authority on 01202 721272.

Ever fancied undertaking some outdoor conservation work but are not sure how to go about it? Well a conservation "taster" day is being run by the Blackdown Hills AONB team at Quantock Common near Stockland on Saturday, August 13th, starting at 10am. Beginners will be given a chance to try out a variety of practical conservation tasks in a friendly, calorie-burning setting, but places are limited so booking is essential. Call the AONB office on 01823 680681.

WI ladies' talk about theatre life

IT has been a very busy time for the ladies of Offwell Women's Institute with the group outing to Bournemouth and Swanage, the monthly meeting and the organisation of the flower show teas all happening in the same week.

Although the weather was unkind everyone enjoyed the trip to Bournemouth and the shops were a Mecca for spending and browsing.

Swanage also provided the chance to pick up some unusual gifts for family and friends.

The speaker at the monthly meeting was Jan Sutcliffe who entranced her audience with stories of her life in the theatre and her work in entertainment at hospices all over the country.

She had met and worked with so many stars in every medium of theatre and advertising, names which included Bruce Forsyth, Dora Bryan and Hattie Jacques. With a beautiful voice she gave the ladies a taste of some of her repertoire. Pat gave the vote of thanks and refreshments were served by Joan and Jackie.

The next meeting is on Thursday, September 1st. New members are always welcome. The talk by Katharine Murray will be on fuchsias.

Variety of activities

MEETINGS of the Beer Women's Institute (WI) are held in the Mariners Hall, Balcony Room, on the first Wednesday of the month at 7.30pm.

Kazy Vincent-Jannes gave an interesting talk on Clinical Ecology at the July meeting. The members entered the WI group competition at the Axe Vale Show.

They were asked to depict a country using crafts, cookery, calligraphy and flowers. The entry, of England, was not placed but nevertheless, it was an enjoyable experience.

There is no meeting in August, but the group will be pleased to depict new and old members when they restart on Wednesday, September 7th. April Rose will give a talk on her work as a McTimoney Chiropractor.

THE WONDERS OF PROVENANCE!

Much time and value is attributed to the provenance of an item and one of our most beautiful tables exemplifies this better than most.

The story starts with an email from France; I was delighted to be contacted by a young guy who emailed us pictures of a couple of tables he wanted to sell. One of the pictures was of a particularly impressive table over nine feet long and with a fabulous two inch thick top.

It is of a style they refer to as "monastic" in the French trade... presumably reflecting the origins of this distinctive style of table where the legs run straight up and are mortised directly into the top rather than having the usual side rails.

Not only could he tell us this table was made in Normandy but that it was made in the town of Caris la Salle and that it had spent its life in this region. Although this is not the sort of thing to interest every one, many people are keen to know as much as possible about their new table.

Usually that would be the end of the story however in this case there is more!

Table restoration starts by dismantling the table as far as possible into its component parts, prior to carrying out any repairs necessary and subsequent re-assembly.

As we were dismantling this table we discovered another chapter in its history. An old wooden patch glued in place hid a small chamber and in this reveal we found an old piece of headed paper from a business called "Pierre Marie" a framers and joiners business in a small town named La Ferriere-Harang. On the reverse of this label in pencil it stated the table had come in for restoration on the 16th May 1932.

I love this detail.....I love to imagine the workshops, the carpenters and the life these people led in rural France between the wars and wonder how this table survived those catastrophic times.

Full details of this table (and pictures of the hidden letterhead we discovered) can be found on our award winning website at www.alexanderpaulantiques.com where we have over forty beautiful antique French provincial dining tables for sale together with a great selection of coffee tables, serving tables and chairs. Each item has a selection of professional quality images, together with all the sizes and prices; do take a look.....you might find just the table you are looking for!

Alternatively come and visit us at our impressive showrooms at Fenny Bridges (just a couple of miles west of Honiton on the old A30)

We have extensive restoration workshops on site and offer a full antique and modern restoration service to all; we can glue up a wobbly chair for you or repair and re-polish the Victorian extending dining table! No job is either too big or too small.

Beware of the unexpected back stabber!

I read a short while ago that in "the bad old days" when people carried weapons about their person, that sitting down for a meal was a risky business and to do so, other than "with your back against the wall" was even more dangerous! To avoid the problem of "getting stabbed in the back" long narrow dining tables were provided in hostels so customers could all sit in safety around the walls looking towards the door, other diners and any unexpected attack!

I am not sure if there is any truth in this .....it certainly sounds plausible and has given our language a few clichés!

Provincial French dining tables have certainly developed along the lines of being long and narrow however this may just have been to accommodate the many farm workers in their communal meals at a single table, sitting together on long narrow benches under the sun.

Times and customs change however and at Alexander Paul Antiques, as French provincial table specialists we are aware that today very narrow tables are always difficult to find homes for as modern requirements dictate sufficient space on the table for more than just the salt and pepper!

We get offered many tables which we regard as too narrow at around twenty five to thirty inches wide and beautiful though they might well be, we pass them by, as we know that customers want a more generous width of around thirty two inches wide or wider.

We currently have in stock a magnificent French cherry table thirteen feet long and with a generous width of over thirty five inches!

If you are searching for a beautiful table for your home then Alexander Paul Antiques, with the largest selection of French provincial dining tables on the web is certainly the first place to look. If thirteen feet is too long for you, then we have many other beautiful tables starting at just three feet long. From cosy tables to seat two to tables to seat the whole family at Christmas we have a table for you!

We have beautiful tables made of beautiful woods, such as Oak, Ash, Cherry, Walnut, Chestnut and Beech.

As well as fabulous dining tables we also have a fantastic selection of serving tables, coffee tables, chairs, benches and slate topped tables.

We also provide the most comprehensive restoration service for antique and modern furniture in the area; everything from a wobbly chair repair to French Polishing can be undertaken in our large modern workshops.

We have a fantastic showroom at Fenny Bridges where you are welcome to come and see all our tables or you can look online at our award winning website at www.alexanderpaulantiques.com

Create stunning interiors without having to spend a fortune

Designer Atlanta Bartlett opens the door to her inspiring home to reveal a combination of imagination, flair and recycling can create stunning interiors without having to spend a fortune. She gives décor guidance, reveals tricks used by stylists and advises on quick ways to clear the clutter.

It would be understandable if a home inhabited by two designers was a temple to perfection: an intimidating space where attention was given to detail rather than lifestyle.

But what's so striking as you step over the threshold of Atlanta Bartlett and Dave Coote's Kent home is its air of tranquil informality, and a 'kick off your shoes and get comfortable' approach to decor.

This is an interior which cocks a snook at trends and transient fashion, and instead celebrates comfortable living with pared back decor - bleached, stripped floorboards, large squashy sofas dressed with light cotton throws, pale walls and an abundance of natural light flooding in through large windows.

"We both have a relaxed, simplistic attitude to interior design and believe that our homes should reflect our personality," says Bartlett, who juggles her work running the couple's interiors company and working as a stylist with bringing up their three young sons and new-born daughter.

"What's paramount to us is good design, and noting fashion and trends - but not following them rigorously. Then it's about creating a happy home, not a show home."

Coote, a furniture and interiors designer known for his quirky, retro style with an emphasis on reclaimed materials, has put his stamp on all areas of the house, but none more so than in the kitchen.

"It's the heart of the home and the hive of activity as a family room, where everything from homework to hobbies takes place. And it's also where we entertain," says Bartlett.

While colour is confined to soft accents - washed-out blues, pastel pinks - there's never any danger of blandness, because the whole is enlivened by a liberal scattering of toys belonging to their lively children, as well as stylish displays.

There are eye-catching quirky treasures arranged on surfaces or hung on walls, ranging from vintage shop signs and Victorian mirrors to assortments of delicate china plates collected over the years from markets.

The interior is a harmonious fusion of both their styles, explains Bartlett, who met her husband 15 years ago.

"Although our styles were quite different - Dave's quite rugged and masculine and I'm more feminine and predominantly prefer white-based schemes - we both love honest materials, artful recycling and choosing vintage over newly-made, and handmade rather than mass produced."

It's resulted in a hugely successful look and company that they've called Pale & Interesting, which they also celebrate in their new book by the same name.

"We want to show that it's not difficult or expensive to create a light, airy home that works for you," she says. "It's all about getting back to basics, tapping into your own style, editing your possessions so you retain only what's useful and beautiful, and then you can live in an environment that's calm, easy and unpretentious." Bartlett reveals her key elements for a Pale & Interesting interior...

Pale & Interesting by Atlanta Bartlett & Dave Coote is published by Ryland, Peters & Small, priced £19.99. Readers can purchase the book for the special price of £17.99 (inc p&p) by calling Macmillan Direct on 01256 302 699 and quoting reference GLR 4WQ. For more information on the theme and company, visit www.paleandinteresting.com #### question you need answering?

Each month in our Homes and Interiors feature we have a helpful section with Nick Whittaker of NJ Whittaker Ltd in Honiton.

He is an experienced and full qualified builder who will answer your questions. This can be anything from DIY queries, a query about new laws and regulations, to a dispute with a builder you have at the moment.

Please either email your questions to kelly@tindlenews.co.uk or post them to; Kelly Baker, Pulman's View, Tindle House, South Street, Axminster, Devon EX13 5AD.

Builders question for August from Sent in by Mrs James

What is a heat recovery system?

Answer:

A heat recovery system works by capturing heat from extracted air that would otherwise be ventilated out of the building and transfer it to warm fresh air which is ducted around a network of ductings. These systems are best suited to new build projects as a network of ducts needs to be planned and the system must be air tight.

Everything for the weekend

CHASE and Status have just announced an extra three dates to their Autumn UK live tour due to popular demand, one of which will see the duo perform at Plymouth Pavilions on Tuesday, November 22nd 2011.

This is their fifth live tour in two years and kicks off in Birmingham on October 6th. The tour also includes a massive sold-out show at London's Brixton Academy.

The duo Saul Milton (Chase) and Will Kennard (Status) have built up a huge live following and their show is certainly one not to be missed so grab your tickets while you can.

After some standout festival appearances already this year at Glastonbury Festival, T in the Park and Benicassim, Chase and Status have just headed to Kendal Calling and Global Gathering at the weekend.

Chase and Status recently returned with the release of their new single Hitz featuring Tinie Tempah out now through Mercury Records.

Hitz follows the release of Time featuring Delilah and the top five single Blind Faith featuring Liam Bailey, all from their platinum selling album No More Idols, which hit the shops back in January and has been storming the charts ever since. Debuting at number two behind Adele, No More Idols is still flying high in the Official UK Album Chart having sold over 300,000 albums to date.

No More Idols features collaborations with rising stars such as Maverick Sabre, Tempa T and Claire Maguire as well as heavy hitters Cee-Lo, Tinie Tempah, Dizzee Rascal and White Lies to name but a few. Chase and Status have had three top 10 singles, five A-list Radio 1 singles and the album has recently achieved platinum sales.

Tickets on sale now and cost £17.50. They will be subject to a processing fee.

To book tickets contact the box office on 0845 146 1460 or visit www.plymouthpavilions.com where it is cheaper to book online rather than over the phone.

Wonderful Alice

ALICE IN WONDERCITY
REVIEW

PROJECT C, in association with Confi-dance, recently premiered Alice in Wondercity at Seaton Town Hall.

A colourful contemporary piece telling the story of Alice in dance was original and inspiring. The performance was professionally presented, slick and stylish. The music was a mixture of 80s pop and modern day rap complimenting perfectly the varied choreography which ranged from ballet to street dance.

Sara Perry, choreographer, did a dynamic rendition of the Queen of Hearts whilst Tilly Winnett lit up the stage with her magical performance of Alice showing a real passion and obvious love for dance, along with Maddy Cozens who was born to dance the role of the Mad Hatter.

Bryanna Kilroy took the part of the Michael Jackson-styled White Rabbit who led Alice into a downward and dark spiral aided by the evil duo Tweedledee and Tweedledum played by Dawn and Megan Bilton.

Other talented members of the cast were Jessica Barrett (Dormouse), Rosie Manley (March Hare), Sasha Cottam (Gryphon), Rosie Underdown (Cheshire cat), Taylor Moore, Jo Stratford, Gemma Mcgrory and Holly Sweeney.

If you were unfortunate to miss that performance you will have another chance on August 12th at Colyton Town Hall and again in Seaton Town Hall as part of a double bill on September 23rd. Tickets are available at Haynes Hardware, Colyton, and at Seaton Town Hall box office for September.

Band opens exhibit

PETER Wiles's exhibition of photographs of Lyme Regis in summer, formally named Where the Brass Band Plays, opened to the strains of the town band.

Almost 150 colourful photographs of Lyme Regis in carnival mood went on public display on Tuesday, July 5th in Lyme Regis Museum's Rotunda gallery.

The exhibition will be open to the public at the gallery until Sunday, September 4th.

ART

◆ THE Devon Open Studios trail, opening from September 3rd to 18th, will be well represented in the east Devon area this year.

Local artists are again throwing their working studios open to the public and all will be welcome. A group of artists whose studios are close to Honiton have got together to promote their personal exhibitions of work.

At Upton, Sarah Bovey and Ann Janes share a studio overlooking the Otter Valley. Sarah focuses her mixed media and charcoal studies on tree and coastal rock formations. Ann works with acrylics and reclaimed materials exploring trees, landscape and maps.

Cristina Ulander, from Bucknell, paints contemporary acrylics inspired by nature, while nearby in Weston, Jane Page and June Harvey also share a studio where Jane paints large scale contemporary oils depicting birds and horses. June specialises in brightly coloured pastels ranging from landscapes to interiors. Mike Hughes, exhibiting in Ottery St Mary, is inspired by nature, his artwork showing wildlife in its natural environment.

Free guides to the Devon Open Studio trails, with details, directions to studios and illustrations of work, are available from Devon tourist information centres.

OUT & ABOUT

◆ AN open garden event in aid of the Devon Air Ambulance Trust will be held in All Saints this weekend.

The event will take place at Catmoore Cottage on Goldsmith Lane and will run on Saturday, August 6th, and Sunday, August 7th. Opening times are from 10am until 4pm and entrance costs £3. The organisers have said that refreshments and cream teas will be available along with local produce.

◆ AXMINSTER Photography Group is holding its summer exhibition at The Arts Cafe, Church Street, Axminster, from Monday, August 1st, until Friday, September 9th.

This year the exhibition will be split into two sections. The first exhibition will run from August 1st until Saturday, August 20th, and this will be followed by a second exhibition running from Monday, August 22nd, until September 9th. The photography group says everyone is welcome to attend the exhibition.

◆ HEMYOCK Primary School will be the venue for a holiday club this summer.

Starting on Monday, August 8th, activities taking place will include story telling, drama, craft and games. The club will run from 11am until 2.45pm and will run throughout the week.

Entrance costs £1.50 per day or £5 for the whole week. For more information contact 01823 680111.

◆ A TEA in the garden event is set to take place at a Colyton property on Saturday, August 20th. The fundraiser will be held at Hilcote on Whitwell Lane and will run from 2pm until 4pm.

A raffle will also be held. All funds will go towards the Children's Society.

◆ AXMINSTER Memory Cafe has celebrated its first year of opening. The cafe is held once a month in the Methodist Church Hall, Lyme Road, Axminster. The next memory cafe event takes place on Tuesday, August 9th when Tiverton and Honiton MP Neil Parish will be in attendance.

FILM

CAPTAIN AMERICA: THE FIRST
AVENGER (12A)

RECALLING the cliffhanger TV series of the 1950s, Captain America: The First Avenger establishes the origins of one of the most popular superheroes from the Marvel Comics stable.

Admittedly, director Joe Johnston has an arsenal of state-of-the-art digital effects at his disposal to spruce up the old-fashioned ideals in Christopher Markus and Stephen McFeely's script.

However, there's something rather charming about the underlying themes of self-sacrifice and valour, and a chaste romantic sub-plot between the strapping hero and his feisty dame that never strays beyond a kiss.

Only the sadistic killing spree of the central villain — a power-hungry Nazi officer with a burned-off face — warrants the 12A certificate that makes Johnston's film unsuitable for very young audiences.

Captain America opens in the present day with the discovery of the wreckage of a gargantuan craft then flashes back to 1942 Norway.

Diabolical German officer Johann Schmidt (Hugo Weaving) steals a Cosmic Cube belonging to Odin and charges mad scientist Dr Armin Zola (Toby Jones) with harnessing the Cube's power as part of his plans for world domination.

Meanwhile in America, German defector Dr Abraham Erskine (Stanley Tucci) is spearheading a secret programme to create the ultimate soldier. He chooses asthmatic weakling Steve Rogers (Chris Evans) as the perfect candidate for the treatment.

As if by magic, Steve is transformed into a muscle-bound hunk and he enthusiastically does his bit for the Allied effort by portraying a fictional character called Captain America at war rallies.

When good friend James Buchanan is presumed dead behind enemy lines, Steve joins forces with playboy inventor Howard Stark and officer Peggy Carter to parachute in behind enemy lines as Captain America and single-handedly take on the Germans.

Captain America: The First Avenger is an entertaining introduction to the iconic characters, using digital trickery to impose Evans's head on a scrawny body before his metamorphosis.

Atwell makes her entrance by punching an insubordinate soldier in the face and she embraces her role as the gutsy love interest with fervour, sparking smouldering screen chemistry with Evans.

Their final scenes together are nicely judged, echoing a tender moment from Michael Bay's slam-bang Armageddon.

Action sequences are orchestrated with aplomb including a daredevil descent into a moving train.

Captain America Will Return promises a title card at the end of the film in place of the additional scene we have come to expect from comic book adaptations. The countdown to tag-team superheroes begins.

FILM

ZOOKEEPER (PG)

Love at the zoo

GRIFFIN Keyes (Kevin James) is humiliated when his sweetheart Stephanie (Leslie Bibb) rebuffs a marriage proposal.

Five years later, Griffin is head keeper at Franklin Park Zoo, treating all of the animals with compassion and earning the respect of co-workers Kate (Rosario Dawson) and Venom (Ken Jeong). Stephanie walks back into Griffin's life and throws him into an emotional whirl. The animals, led by Joe the lion (voiced by Sylvester Stallone) and Janet the lioness (Cher), decide to break their silence to help Griffin win back Stephanie.

Once the keeper recovers from the shock that the beasts can talk, he follows their conflicting advice about how to woo Stephanie.

SEATON & DISTRICT ART SOCIETY

Proudly present...

Their 39th Annual Art Exhibition
At the Seaton Town Hall
Saturday 6th to 11th August.

In its 40th year the committee welcomes new faces as well as old to its membership. All are encouraged to exhibit and offer their work for sale throughout the 5 days. A few members have kindly consented to work on their current paintings during the exhibition so that public can watch and pick up a few tips on how to draw or paint. Should any member of public wish to join the Seaton & District Art Society, there will be friendly committee members and stewards in attendance who are willing to answer any questions concerning the society. Annual membership is £15-00 p.a and junior membership is £7-00 if the applicant is still in full time education.

If your looking for inspiration, or just enjoy art, then do come to our exhibition for there is something to please everyone. The works range from soft water colour paintings to dramatic landscape's in gouache, from ceramics and engraved glass to life sculpture. Members have been inspired to try new techniques following the monthly demonstration held at the Methodist church hall, Seaton where they have had the pleasure of listening and watching professional artists create works of art using anything from pastels, inks, oils, acrylics to mixed media. Visitors are welcome to these monthly demonstrations for a small fee.

Anna Mason, a dedicated member, is shown below with one of her paintings which she did at the Monday club. This happy going club is open to all members where they can draw or paint a portrait or still life and take part in a monthly challenge project. There is no formal tuition at these Monday gatherings but everyone is encouraged to show and appraise their work at the end of the session.

Alan Cotton D.Litt., FRSA and president of the society will once again open the Art Exhibition. He will also award The presidents cup for the best picture in the show. BBC Radio 4 gardening expert Anne Swinthinbank will present The Maggie Lodge Rose Bowl for a water colour flower painting. Donald Campbell, President of the Axe Vale District Conservation Society, will judge for Bob Hurnell Memorial cup for the best wildlife painting in pastel. West Country artist Peter Goodehall will award both the Barbara Hollingsworth Award for best portrait and The Devon Farmers Cup for a landscape painting. In addition there will be the Mitre Box Cup for which the visiting public have the opportunity to vote by choosing their "best" picture. Using feltip pens any child up to the age of ten will be invited to enter the competition. The subject this year is 'A summer holiday' or 'Portrait.' The winner will receive a certificate from the Society with Their name on it.

The entrance fee to the Seaton & District Art Society's 39th Art Exhibition is 50p to include a catalogue. Home made cakes, teas, coffees and soft drinks will be available for a minimum charge and there will be the chance to win one of the 2 raffle prizes and one of two raffle prizes and one of the many tombola prizes.

Summer Holiday Fun!

Summer is here, so to help you prepare, we've put together a fantastic Summer guide covering East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset

A world of fun at Pecorama

Pecorama, one of East Devon's leading visitor attractions, is located on the hillside above the picturesque fishing village of Beer and is home to the award-winning Beer Heights Light Railway, PECO Model Railway Exhibition and the Millennium Celebration Garden.

A fleet of miniature steam locomotives pull passenger carrying trains on a mile-long route through the gardens; whilst indoors, the Exhibition displays wonderfully detailed railway layouts, many with push button controls enabling children to operate the trains.

The Millennium Garden offers stunning views of Lyme Bay and consists of five unique garden 'rooms' linked by decorative stone walkways. The individual names of Sun, Moon, Rainbow, Roof and Moat Gardens reflect the nature and colour of the plants to be found in each.

Children can choose from a variety of activity areas including new for 2011, the Peco Pirate Ship, whilst summer shows in the Garden Theatre run from mid-July to the start of September.

Pecorama is now open daily, 10am to 5.30pm with admission prices as follows: Adults £7.70; Senior Citizens £6.85; Children (4-16) £5.50 with under 4's and over 80's free entry.

These prices include admission to the Gardens, entertainment on show dates, one ride on the Beer Heights Light Railway and entry to the PECO Model Railway Exhibition. Pecorama, Beer, Devon. EX12 3NA. <http://www.pecorama.info> or email: pecorama@pecobeer.co.uk

Tudor charm awaits you at the Drewe

Welcome to our 15th Century pub in the beautiful thatched village of Broadhembury.

The Drewe Arms is a traditional pub with a modern twist, many of the original features such as the Tudor linenfold panelling, huge open fireplace and Tudor beamed ceilings co-exist tastefully with our light oak floor and bar and bright, airy restaurant.

We take our food very seriously at the Drewe Arms. It's not just something we do, it's something we believe in.

Every dish, wherever possible, will be prepared on site using fresh seasonal ingredients, sourced from either our onsite vegetable garden & orchard or local farms and growers.

Not only does this enable us to support our local community, but it also allows us to maintain a greater control over the quality of our dishes, with accountability over every major ingredient.

Perfect companion for stressed out parents?

The summer holidays are here and the boredom will already have started. The 12-year-old and 13-year-old authors of 101 Things To Do On The Holidays explain how their book can help fill the days.

The school summer holidays may only have just begun, but kids' cries of "I'm bored!" will already be depressingly familiar in many households.

Most families can't afford to fork out much to keep the holiday boredom at bay, although a new report has found that parents will still spend an average of £414 per child on entertainment during the summer holidays.

But even spending that sort of money doesn't cover most of the free holiday time - and that's where 101 Things To Do On The Holidays might be a very big help.

Rather than being adult ideas about how kids can keep busy, this is a book written by kids for kids.

The young authors are Anna O'Donnell, who was 12 when she wrote the book, and her best friend Tessa Wilson, who was 13.

Anna, now 13, who lives near Tessa in Sydney, Australia, says: "We'd done all the usual stuff that you do in the school holidays - going to the beach, sleepovers, hanging out with friends - but we were getting bored with that, and we thought about what else we could do.

"So we made a list, and our goal was to get them all finished before the end of the holidays.

"We had 100 things on the list, and when my dad suggested the book idea, we added another one for 101 - and that was to write your own book."

Ideas in the book include having a human wheelbarrow race, a paper plane contest, putting make-up on a friend while blindfolded, writing a letter to the prime minister, inventing a secret language, or spending a whole morning saying only 'yes', 'no' or 'hello'.

All the ideas were the girls' own, and the pair say they took only about two hours to write them down. They then spent the whole of their holidays - eight to nine weeks in December and January - trying them all out.

Tessa, now 14, says: "It was all really good fun - a wonderful experience.

"We just thought up weird things that you might not usually think of doing, that would be great fun."

Tessa's favourite in the book is dressing up and going to a friend's house without telling them you're dressing up. She dressed as Wonder Woman.

The girls' shared favourite is connecting a friend's freckles with a pen, like a dot to dot.

The book is in sections, including Games, Inventions, Missions, Experiments, and Creations.

After Anna's dad John sent the ideas to a publisher and they took the book on, the friends had to spend a few months re-writing some of their ideas so they were relevant to any kids, not just those living locally.

Already a master at self-promotion at the ten-derage of 13, Anna points out: "These things aren't just to do in the holidays - most are indoors and can be done on rainy days, so they're great ideas for any time of the year - like on a weekend after you've done your homework. They're great to do to have some fun with a friend, and on your own."

The pair, who met at school, are proud their book is now in the school library, and plan to write other books. They're currently discussing new 'top secret' ideas.

"We've had so much fun doing this book, we'd definitely like to do another together," confirms Anna.

Her mum Sue O'Donnell says she's a very proud parent, and points out: "I don't think even the girls realise how unusual it is to have a book published when you're so young - it's fantastic for them.

"The girls didn't set out to write a book, they just wanted to write a list of things to do during the holidays, so the fact that it then became an actual book was an easy process.

"It was just a fun thing that they did on their own."

Sue, an accountant, says although it's all been a great experience: "Some days Anna will spend all day in her pyjamas, and when I tell her to go and get dressed she says, 'No, it's on the list'.

"So sometimes they get to do things they might not have been allowed to do."

Summer Holiday Fun!

Summer is here, so to help you prepare, we've put together a fantastic Summer guide covering East Devon, West Dorset and South Somerset

Start The Summer Holidays With The Donkey Sanctuary

To kick off the start of the summer holidays, international animal welfare charity The Donkey Sanctuary have organised a week of exciting activities and events at our Sidmouth sanctuary.

Our Sidmouth based sanctuary is a working farm, home to 500 donkeys in need of care. Come and visit our friendly donkeys, take part in our wide range of events and activities for all ages, or simply enjoy our miles of walks through some of Devon's most beautiful countryside.

Some of the exciting events we have planned for the week include Summer Donkey Hunts which are taking place all week for our younger visitors, a teddy bears picnic and donkey trek on Tuesday 2nd August and hands on events allowing children to groom the donkeys, muck out the stables as well as playing on our obstacle course and face painting. For the whole family there is a barbecue and quiz night on Wednesday the 3rd August and an Italian Theme Night at The Hayloft Restaurant on Wednesday 10th August for which booking is essential. Summer events continue until September 18th so there is plenty to see and do for the whole family this summer at The Donkey Sanctuary.

The Donkey Sanctuary is also joining forces with popular East Devon attraction Seaton Tramway to offer a promotion for those enjoying their summer holidays in the area. As part of the new initiative, one customer from every group of passengers travelling on the tram can also add a free hot drink and giant chocolate cookie in The Donkey Sanctuary's Hayloft restaurant to their day out. Visitors who make a purchase in The Donkey Sanctuary's visitor centre and shop will also be given a voucher entitling one child per group to travel free with Seaton Tramway.

Visit our website www.thedonkeysanctuary.org.uk for further details about our events and special offers.

AXE VALLEY PEDALLERS

100 cyclists set off for 'great tour'

THE inaugural A Small Bit of The Great Tour (Audax) started in Seaton.

Jointly organised by Axe Valley Pedallers and Exeter Cyclists' Touring Club, the event featured 100 cyclists who left Seaton from the pedalabout at Fisherman's Gap at 9am on Sunday, July 31st. Alistair Cope of Axe Valley Pedallers, said: "The cycle clubs set up a registration and command centre at Pebbles Coffee House where early arrivals enjoyed a cup of coffee.

"Then two groups set off on two distances; 100km and 50km, both with some pretty tough hills.

"The route took in a bit of both the first and last stages of last year's Great Tour."

Audax United Kingdom describes itself as "the internationally recognised long-distance cycling association in the UK".

Usually referred to as Audax UK or AUK, it was established in 1976.

Audax UK oversees the running of long-distance cycling events in the UK and, using a system of timed checkpoints, validates and records every successful ride.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

THREE members of Axe Valley Runners (AVR) went to Minehead for the Seaview 17, which is actually 20.5 miles long.

Participants are dropped off at the top of Contisbury Hill, near Lynmouth, to run back along the hilly coast path to Minehead.

Geoff Woodward, Steve Reynolds and Simon Radcliff, who took the place of the ailing Eleanor Wood, formed the AVR trio.

It was Simon's first attempt at this distance but he made a quick start and soon left the others behind.

Steve felt as though he was struggling most of the way, so he was surprised to catch Geoff at Porlock Weir.

Simon was feeling his early pace and the others could see him not too far ahead.

Then came the dreaded Heartbreak Hill up to Dunkery Beacon.

Geoff managed to walk past Simon, with Steve struggling behind.

Geoff made the most of his lead and went on to finish in three hours and 26 minutes.

Steve was closing in on Simon until an attack of cramp held him up.

Simon did well to finish in three hours and 32 minutes, with Steve not far behind in three hours and 36 minutes.

Harry Moore was very pleased with his efforts at the Lyme Regis Lifeboat two-and-a-half mile race, where he took silver in the male veteran class with a time of 30 minutes.

April seems a long time ago and the effort of London Marathon a distant memory.

After running his first marathon in four hours, 19 minutes and 57 seconds, Tim Sibley has finished his fundraising and has raised £469 towards two local charities.

A sum of £233.75 went to Sift, a Seaton-based charity which helps poor and needy people in Nicaragua.

More information about the charity can be found online at www.secd-trust.com.

In addition, £235.25 went to Devon Air Ambulance Trust to assist with keeping Devon's two air ambulances flying.

Tim would like to thank all those who supported him and Axe Valley Runners for the entry into the marathon.

◆ COACHES and parents of children at Honiton Rugby Club took part in a mini triathlon to raise funds for the club

Junior rugby players' mini triathlon

THE junior section of Honiton Rugby Club took part in a mini triathlon on Sunday, July 31st.

Youngsters and coaches from the clubs under eights, under 10s, under 11s and under 12s took part in the event to raise money for training and match equipment. The triathlon included an 800 metre swim, a 15 mile bike ride and a run.

More than £800 was raised and a spokesman for the club said:

"Congratulations to all those who took part, and many thanks for the support provided by friends and family."

FENITON BOWLS CLUB

No wins for a dismal men's bowling team

IT was a dismal week for Feniton Bowling Club's mens bowls teams.

It started with a whitewash against Madeira in their final County Trophy match.

The teams didn't win on any of the four rinks.

It was a similar story in the men's over 60s triples league.

The A team who were lying third in division three lost to second place Budleigh Salterton, again losing on both rinks by 20-58.

The B team did little to alleviate their fears of relegation, like the A team, they lost on both rinks to Crediton C.

The final stages of the three bowl singles took place at the weekend.

The quarter finals and semi-finals were all closely contested and most matches were decided on the final end.

In the final, John Livings took an early lead against Lyn Eveleigh but could not sustain his early momentum with Lyn winning by 55-48.

The mixed team travelled to Bridport and lost an enjoyable, friendly match only winning on one rink.

The winning rink was Glynda Blackmore, Robin Cooke, Frank Imms and Paul Edmonds 27-16.

◆ THREE bowl finalists John Livings and Lyn Eveleigh

CHARDSTOCK BOWLING CLUB

ON Thursday, July 21st the men's team had an evening home match against Bridport.

The final score was 60-57 to the home team.

On Saturday, July 30th the visitors were Axminster to play a three-rink mixed match.

The final score was 81-40 to the home team.

On Sunday, July 31st the visitors were Hemyock to play a four-rink mixed triples match.

The final score was 87-40 to Chardstock.

On Sunday, July 24th the club held its annual Jimmy Wyatt Trophy on a sunny but windy afternoon in which invited teams from Ottery St Mary, Feniton, Taunton and Crewkerne played a 21-end round robin competition.

The winning team were J Grandfield; R Buckingham; A Grandfield and D Buckingham from Taunton.

Runners up were the Chardstock team A of Veena Cole, Brian Howard, Doris Emery and Peter Compton.

AXMINSTER OUTDOOR BOWLS CLUB

AXMINSTER Outdoor Bowls Club won its only home match during the past fortnight.

In the Over 60s Devon League the club had an excellent home victory against Bradninch (44-38), gaining six points — the winning trio being William Cook, Graham Ayres, and David Harris (21-14) whilst the other team of Les Monk, Pat Hicks, and Frank Bridge was unlucky to lose by just one shot (23-24).

In our two other Over 60s games, Axminster lost narrowly at Honiton (28-34) and at Princes Park (Exeter) by 28 to 36 shots.

Three mixed friendlies ended with losses at Wrington (Bristol) with no winners (43-68), at South Petherton (56-66) — despite a good win by Mary Preston, Chris Hobbs, and Roger Legg (20-16) and a creditable tie for Alan Tayler, Ann Clayton, and Marion Harris (12-12) — and at Chardstock (40-81).

The ladies lost their friendly at Ilminster (28-38) despite a good win for Lilian Lovatt, Joan Quick, and Margaret Crompton (22-9).

Unfortunately, the ladies could not raise a side for their game at Chardstock.

Captains' Day was followed by round-robin competitions, which were won by Joan and Ken Quick respectively.

HONITON GOLF CLUB

Mixed teams play for club's Goblets

THE Mixed Greensome Stableford, drawn for partners, playing for the Chivers Goblets was last week's format.

Members were delighted that Geoff and Sheila Banks were again at the club to present the goblets and this month they were presented to Sue Witton and Peter Shepherd with a score of 35 points.

Second place were Rosemary Whiteley and John Dickinson with 32 points. Third place Hilda Hoepelman and Chris Poole with 31 points.

The Bradshaw Bogey competition was hotly contested last Wednesday with Henrietta Bradshaw and Lesley Farley tying for first position, so it was pistols (or golf clubs) at dusk for a tense play-off over four holes with Lesley emerging as the victor and overall winner.

The weekend medal, on July 23rd, was won by Diana Gee with a nett 78. Four ladies played.

The competition last week was a Texas Scramble. Originally called Captain's Choice, since the leading player in each group made the choice on shot selection.

The format became widely known as the Texas Scramble when it flourished in Texas during the depression and attained great popularity in Las Vegas in the 1950s.

There were no signs of depression for the team of Phil Donne-Davis, Fred Thomas and Bill Phillips however, who recorded a score of 61.5 to secure first prize.

Second place went to John Lamb,

John Bevan and Chris Chalker with 62, followed by Stan Squire, Norman Ede and Ron Rogers with 62.2, and Roger Risdon, Bob Underwood and Bill Eaton on 62.3.

The highest turnout of the year with 86 players provided 84 balls in the two competitions which were shared between Roger Risdon, John Ward, Phil Donne-Davis and Bob Bilyard.

A home match with Taunton and Pickeridge Golf Club saw a narrow win for Honiton by 3.5 matches to 2.5.

WINDWHISTLE GOLF CLUB

Strong field of 64 take on County Golfer Challenge at Windwhistle

THE County Golfer Challenge took place on Sunday, July 3rd at Windwhistle; the winner would go forward to represent Windwhistle in the next round.

A strong field of 64 played a Medal Competition with three players scoring a net 70 and could only be separated on count back.

William Plumridge took first place with Paul Matthews runner up; third place went to Phillip Dances.

The weekend of July 9th and 10th saw the Scratch and Handicap Shield take place.

The competition took place over 36 holes stroke play for two competitions, the lowest gross and net scores over the two days. The competition was keenly fought in this prestigious event. The Scratch Cup was won by Jon Stone with a gross score of 148 making him the Champion for 2011.

Second and third places were only separated by count back with Martin Hartley and Ian Clark both scoring 149. Ian won the Handicap Shield with a net 137.

The Hall of Fame stableford competition, in aid of Cancer Research, was played on July 24th and was contested by 36 players.

The top five winners were Martin Bargery in first place with 39 points, second was Nigel Cornell with 38 points.

Third, fourth and fifth places on 37 points could only be separated by count back for Ray Heard, Jon Stone and junior Ian Clark respectively.

Windwhistle B team played Wheathill in their Avalon league match on Saturday and completed a comprehensive 4-1 win keeping them on track for the league title.

Club captain Paul Fenton would like to congratulate the winners and a big thanks to all who took part and also for members continued support for club competitions and the captain's charity.

AXE CLIFF GOLF CLUB

Glorious sunshine for members' friendly golf match

LAST Monday the Ladies enjoyed a friendly match at Lyme Regis Golf Club in glorious sunshine.

Axe Cliff won the match the winning pairings being Alison Cook and Liz Wheelodon and Janet Dack with Pauline Standerwick.

The weekly competition was the EWGA Medal and Axe Cliff Cup Two.

The Medal was won by Mary Gippes with a nett 71 resulting in her handicap being cut by one.

In second place was Janet Dack playing to par nett 73 including a two on the 11th. Glenda Board was the winner of the Silver Division.

Thirty-seven seniors took part in the Quarterly Cup, a 15-hole Stableford, which preceded the prize giving Medals and Stableford over the past three months.

The scores reflected the pleasant playing conditions with the top three hitting 36 points or better.

The winner with an excellent 38 points was Terry Jessup (19) followed by Martin Wallbank (28) with 37 points and Sid Pember (19) in third place with 36 points.

There were four twos, from Jack Bannister, Sid Pember, Mike

Jamieson and Clive Davie. Clive's two outshone the others as it was an eagle at the par four fourth, 257 yards where he sank his second shot.

The main club competed on Sunday in excellent conditions for Paul Clode's Captain's prize day. The winner, with 45 points, was Anthony Chadwick. Second was Nigel Pritchard with 42 points and third with 41 points was Geoff Greenslade.

SEATON BOWLS CLUB

SEATON Bowls Club played a five triples game against Chard on July 25th and lost by a single shot, 85 to 86.

Top triple was Liz Scull, Sue Banwell-Moore and Ken Shean.

In the Ladies Over 50s triples League Seaton beat Dawlish Marina by 48 shots to 24.

In the men's Over 60s Triples league, the A team lost to Phear Park B by five shots, 30 to 35.

Top triple was David Ford, Keith Miles and Roger Woolland.

The B team beat Mordard Bishop B by 36 shots to 27, the top triple being Jeremy Allison, Bob Scull and David Yardley.

Seaton Ladies Over 50s Triples team beat Belmont by 39 shots to 31, the top triple being Angie Mayhew, Rhonda Follenfant and Sue Rutter.

Seaton beat Honiton in the Two Counties Open League by 87 shots to 73.

Top rink was Peter Newton, Ian Manchester, Edward Backhouse and Phil Crichard.

Roger Woolland beat Roy Carnell in the group final of the Bowls Devon Over 60s singles played at Seaton on July 29th.

On Saturday, July 30th Angie Mayhew, Linda Stone and Barbara Thompson won the Honiton Triples Invitation Competition.

TOWN CRICKET CLUB

1st XI v Thorverton (away)

THE loss of early wickets caused some trepidation in the Axminster camp but a partnership of 85 between Gary Larcombe and Joel Seward (42) took the score to 103.

Mark Richards, making a return to the side after a self imposed lay off, was dismissed for a duck but Gary was then joined by Tristan Wakeley (34) and they took the score past the 200 mark before the former was dismissed for 105.

Axminster should perhaps have been looking for a higher score but in the end Thorverton could only reach 174-9.

Paul Miller rang the changes, using seven bowlers in all, and wickets fell steadily but the home side managed to hang on for the draw. Alex Wraight 2-30, Gary Larcombe 2-32 and Mark Richards 2-32 returned the best figures but this was yet another frustrating end to a game that Axminster came so close to winning.

They now have two home games in succession and will hope to take themselves well away from the relegation zone.

2nd XI v Thorverton (home)

Axminster skipper Peter Kiy won the toss and having asked the visitors to bat first saw Anning (54) and Milward (24) give the visitors a sound start.

Consistent batting down the order produced a total of 233 – 7 at the interval.

Alan Ostler 3-47, and Dan Fuzzerd 2-28 were the pick of the Axminster bowlers but the total, on the fortunes of the 2nd XI batting this year seemed formidable. When the two sides met previously Axminster had been bowled out for 69 and Sean Perry was out for a duck but on this occasion fortunes changed somewhat and hard hitting Sean dominated the home side reply with an innings of 121 not out.

With 11 sixes and nine fours included and solid support from Michael Wakley (52) Axminster romped home to their first win of the season with some 13 overs spare.

3rd XI v Uplyme &amp; Lyme Regis

This match also proved a reversal of the result earlier in the summer when Axminster were well beaten by seven wickets.

The visitors were bowled out for a total of 119 with Mr Extras (40) making the highest contribution against a varied bowling attack with Sam Farrow picking up 3-26. Axminster's reply seemed in trouble with two wickets falling with only 3 runs scored. But Dan Bicknell took the attack to Uplyme with a rapid 21 and then Adam Whitehouse with a belligerent innings of 85, including 13 fours and two sixes, supported by Sam Dibbling (7) took the eleven to only their second victory of the season — the runs coming in a mere 11 overs.

Corinthian Cup - Semi-Final
Axminster v Plymstock

A depleted Axminster side travelled to Tavistock on Sunday to compete in the cup competition but were soundly beaten in the semi-final by Plymstock.

They were bowled out for 92 inside their allotted 18 overs. Plymstock lost four wickets but an innings of 52 from one player saw them to a comfortable victory.

TOM'S CLASSY
UNBEATEN 91

By KEVIN FAHEY

sport.pulmans@tindlenews.co.uk

TOM Wyatt came close to adding his name to the list of local centurions at the weekend as he hit a classy unbeaten 91 in Uppottery's victory over Kilmington.

Opening the batting Wyatt literally ran out of runs as he steered Uppottery to victory on 156-5 as they comfortably chased down Kilmington's 153-9.

Uppottery captain David Woolcott said: "Tom won't worry about that (missing a ton) as he is a real team player."

"It was a good knock and he scored 50 not out the previous week so he is coming into form. Actually we are playing really well, especially our bowlers."

Gary Kennard was the pick of the bunch with 3-26 off 10 overs, while Lee Nicholl also had a terrific spell, to restrict Kilmington's big hitters to just 153.

Ryan Pullman scored 17 in support of Wyatt as Uppottery bagged the 19 points to stay second in E Division just ahead of Honiton, Kentisbeare and Uplyme and Lyme Regis in what is proving to be a terrific battle this season.

Pete Matravers' superb 104 and a fine 69 from Robert Ingram helped Honiton to 20 points as they scored an imposing 294-6 against Tiverton and Bickleigh.

But Honiton's bowlers also played their part with skipper Kevin Kelly claiming 5-31 and Adam Holmes 4-17 as Tiverton were skittled out for 128.

Kevin Kelly said: "It was nice to get back among the wickets again."

Uplyme and Lyme Regis cruised to a nine-wickets victory over Woodbury to stay in the E Division promotion hunt. Bottom side Woodbury were restricted to 123-4 and Uplyme knocked off those runs for the loss of just one wicket with Mark Batey scoring 58 not out and Rob Thorn adding 39.

A century partnership between Gary Larcombe and Joel Seward laid the foundations for Axminster's draw against Thorverton in B Division.

Seward scored 52 in support of Larcombe's 105 with Tristan Wakeley adding 38 as Axminster reached 208-7.

In reply Thorverton dug in to finish on 174-9 with two wickets each for Larcombe, Mark Richards, returning to the side after a long absence and Alec Wraight.

Feniton deserved more than a draw against Whitchurch in D Division as they scored a superb 314-6 with wicket-keeper Rob Pfeiffer hitting an unbeaten 103, skipper Mark Kingdon 83, Norman Bedford 42 and John Pyle 34.

But Whitchurch proved no pushovers and despite a fine spell of bowling from John French (4-34) Feniton, who lost strike bowler Ross Whitten after just three overs due to injury, couldn't finish them off as they reached 207-7. Mark Kindon said: "Sadly we couldn't skittle them out but the lads played really well and that is another 14 points."

Seaton have endured a tough season so they will be relieved to pick up 20 points for beating bottom side Cockington. Skipper Ben Morgan led by example with the season's best figures of 6-43 as Cockington were dismissed for 204.

In reply Seaton reached 207-4 with John Waterhouse scoring 76, Mark Bray 30 and Nick Beadle 30. Ben Morgan said: "We are still confident we can stay up."

In contrast Seaton's 2nd XI are battling for promotion in E Division East and they added another 19 points with a four-wicket victory over Kenn to stay second behind leaders Exeter.

Skipper Ian Hunt claimed 4-38 as Kenn were restricted to 155-8 and in reply Toby Tucker hit 72, Andy Carter an unbeaten 22 and Stuart White 13 as Seaton reached 157-6.

LIFEGUARD RESCUE

Lifeguard Sarah rescues kayaker

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

AN RNLI lifeguard swam 300 metres to rescue a kayaker in distress off Monmouth Beach in Lyme Regis.

The drama started when a concerned member of the public reported a kayak in distress in the afternoon of Saturday, July 30th.

RNLI lifeguards, Lyme Regis Coastguard rescue officers and Lyme Regis RNLI Inshore lifeboat were tasked for a joint-operation.

A spokesperson for the RNLI said: "Lifeguard Sarah Sedcole ran 500 metres and then swam 300metres to help a 58-year-old man who had fallen from his kayak off Monmouth Beach.

"The incident happened when the town and beaches were packed with holidaymakers waiting for the start of events, including the bathtub race."

Sarah, 23, a triathlon athlete, ran from the lifeguard station on the main beach and found the man clinging to his kayak.

She said: "I chatted to him — he had a lifejacket — and when the lifeboat arrived he said he was happy to swim with me to the shore while the lifeboat crew collected his kayak.

"He was fine once we got ashore."

The RNLI lifeboat was alerted by coastguards at 3.30pm.

Two of the crew, Tim Edwards and Ritchie Durrant, took part in the bathtub race just an hour after returning from the incident to the station. The lifeboat crew came fifth out of a record 20 entries in the bathtub race.

TOP THREE CENTURIES

Local batsmen trio goes run crazy

By KEVIN FAHEY

EAST Devon's batsmen went run-crazy at the weekend with three top local players scoring centuries.

Axminster's Gary Larcombe takes top billing with a superb 105 against Thorverton in their Division B match which ended in a draw.

Axminster skipper Paul Miller said: "It was a brilliant knock from Gary.

"We had lost two early wickets when he came in and he really steadied the ship. He has scored a couple of 80s this season but that is his first century and I think he is now pushing 500 league runs for the season which is a great achievement with five games still to play."

In Division E, Pete Matravers plundered 104 off Tiverton and Bickleigh to keep alive Honiton's chances of promotion as they added another 20 points to keep them in third and close on the heels of Filleigh and Uppottery.

Honiton skipper Kevin Kelly purred: "Pete was absolute class and he didn't give a single chance at all.

"He normally scores a couple of tons each season but that is his first in 2011."

When Rob Pfeiffer came in to bat at No 1 for Feniton there seemed little chance he would have the time or support to reach a century but he did that with an excellent 103 not out.

Feniton captain Mark Kingdon said: "That is Rob's first league century and definitely his first for the first XI. It may even be his first ever ton and he played really well."

Pfeiffer's runs helped Feniton reach a massive 314-6 but it still wasn't enough for victory as Whitchurch held on for a draw.
